Legal Services

Rapid regulatory developments in the energy sector throughout the region ensure that our energy specialists are continually providing pioneering advice. Our team has developed a multi-disciplinary approach, providing corporate, real estate, banking and finance advice in connection with energy sector projects and investments. We regularly assist our clients with due diligence investigations, project financing, licensing processes, regulatory compliance, and the perfection of security interests. Our energy lawyers have valuable sector specific knowledge and experience in advising on projects in the oil & gas, electricity and renewable energy sectors, including the construction of power plants, energy trading, mining issues, and public procurement projects.
