Description

Infostud is one of the major internet companies in Serbia. We lead 11 internet businesses dealing with automobiles, education, employment, real estate and insurance.

Infostud sites poslovi.infostud.com and polovniautomobili.com are leaders on the employment and automobiles markets. Our head office is in Subotica and we have three branch offices in Belgrade, and 170 employees. Infostud owners and founders are Branislava Gajić Stanojević, Branimir Gajić and Stefan Salom, while minority shareholder is Alma Media.

In addition to our efforts for strengthening our Group, the economic development of Serbia is very important to us. That is why we organize many activities in order to improve IT entrepreneurship. We have founded Infostud Hub in Subotica and we actively support organizations like Startit. As well, the Infostud Group, together with eight technological companies, is one of the founders of the Inicijativa Digitalna Srbija which is focused on fast and successful digitalisation of our country. We also deliver active support to state programme of re-training for the jobs within the IT sector in order to accelerate development of this sector.
